HALLOWEEN SURPRISES AT SF CHILDREN'S FAIR

10/29-30 3rd Annual SF Children's Fair

Ghosts and goblins, witches and wookies, will celebrate Halloween at the 3rd annual San Francisco Children's Fair on Saturday and Sunday October 29-30, in Pier 2 of Fort Mason Center. The Fair will be open 10am-5pm and admission will be 50 cents for children under 12 and $3 for adults. Free parking and shuttle bus service will be available from Crissy Field.

Highlighting the festivities will be the Great Halloween Train Ride through the fanciful Pumpkin Patch, Tombstone Towers and Witch's Woods. At 2pm each afternoon, the young trick or treaters can show off their Halloween finery in the Grand Costume Parade.

In the Art Room, children can make Halloween bags, spooky masks and wood-block prints. They can learn about computers through programs specially designed for children or try their hand at Atari's new educational games. The world of science will be made accessible and fun, through exhibits by the Exploratorium, the Oakland Museum and the Terwilliger Foundation. The San Francisco Zoological Society will bring animals for children to meet and the SPCA will have pets available for families to adopt.

Tots can ride the Police Activities League's motorized tricycles and can climb aboard one of the CHP's real motorcycles.

The Fair—a joyous celebration of the city's bountiful resources for children and parents—will feature lively entertainment, exciting educational displays, hands-on exhibits and activities plus crafts, toys, food and drink.

San Francisco's favorite clowns, dancers, musicians, mimes and choral groups will entertain throughout the weekend. Juggler Ray Jason, the San Francisco Boys Chorus, slackrope walker Surya Singer and Ranka's Marionettes will be among the entertainers who will delight fairgoers.

Parents will have the opportunity to inquire about community resources and can shop for special children's items—hand-crafted toys, clothes and games.

The San Francisco Children's Fair benefits the Magic Years Infant and Childcare Program. For more information about the Fair call 661-1266.

MAGIC THEATRE'S NEW SEASON

When it happens for the first time... it's Magic! With the launching of its 1983-84 subscription campaign, the Magic Theatre announced its selection of new plays and premieres for next year, marking the theatre's seventeenth year of production in the Bay Area. According to Artistic Director John Lion, the season line-up will include:

The Grass House by Adele Edling Shank; a comedy set on a marijuana farm in Mendocino.
Private Scenes by Joel Homer; which examines the limits of eroticism as a lifestyle.
City Preacher by Ed Bullins; a poignant drama about a son's homecoming set in Harlem of the 1930's.
These Men by Mayo Simon; a comedy in which a "roommate wanted" sign brings two very different women together.
The Sister Joseph Memorial Gymnasium by Lucy Lewis; a comedy set in an exclusive Catholic girls' school.

The season, which opens on October 19 at the company's two-theatre complex in Fort Mason Center, will total eight plays. There will be a work by Sam Shepard, the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright; and two more plays to be chosen from among the works of such playwrights as John O'Keefe, John Robinson, Terry Lee Fox, Suzanna Hellmuth and others.

Magic Theatre has long been recognized as a leading force in the development and growth of modern drama in America. Since its founding in 1967, Director John Lion has been committed to producing new plays of established and emerging playwrights. The theatre and its playwrights have won numerous awards including the Pulitzer Prize, Obie Awards, Tony Award nominations, L.A. Dramalogue Awards, Bay Area Critics Circle Awards, and the first award ever given by The San Francisco Arts Commission for achievement in theatre. Sam Shepard, Adele Shank and Michael McClure are only a few of the outstanding playwrights whose works have first been seen at Magic.

The 1983-84 Magic Theatre season will once again bring exciting and innovative plays to the Bay Area. Subscriptions are now on sale and offer subscribers eight plays for a great savings of up to 15% off the regular box office price. Friends of Fort Mason receive an additional $5 off if they subscribe by October 15. Season tickets are priced as follows: Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday evenings $67; Previews (Wednesday-Saturday evenings), Sunday matinees, Students and Seniors $60; Friday and Saturday $75. Magic Theatre also offers a unique subscription opportunity for its Gala Subscription series. For $140 ($73 of which is tax-deductible) subscribers can join in opening night festivities and meet with the playwright, director and actors at a gourmet buffet after the performance. Subscribers receive numerous benefits as well as priority discounts for special events.

Performances at the Magic Theatre run Wednesday-Sunday evenings at 8:30pm and Sunday matinees are at 2pm. For further information call the box office at 441-8822.
